A Hero Ain't Nothin But a Sandwich by Alice Childress ...

Scarred Phantom Hero draws on the idea that a hero is an ordinary person with deep flaws and scars. I love Heyzeus Hero both for the humor in his name and the ironic commentary in his name. And if a spider can be a hero, if a bat can be a hero, a kryptonite exposed man can be a hero, why not A Hero Called Wonder Goat or one named Jarvis the ...

A Hero Ain't Nothin' But a Sandwich Characters - eNotes.com

The banned book I chose is titled A Hero Ain't Nothin' but a Sandwich by Alice Childress. The book is about a thirteen-year-old boy, Benjie Johnson, who has become a heroin addict but denies that he has a problem. He is convinced that he's not "hooked" and can quit shooting up whenever he wants to.

A Hero Ain't Nothin' But a Sandwich by Alice Childress falls under the genre of contemporary realistic fiction and is intended for children 13-16 years of age. Due to the drug usage, I would say it is a book meant to children a little older than the typical middle school chapter books. The book won the Lewis Carrol Shelf Award in 1975.
