A Pickpocket's Tale Summary | SuperSummary

A Pickpocket's Tale provides a remarkably fresh view into New York's underworld, a subject long dominated by hackneyed lurid narratives of murderous urban banditti and colorful Runyonesque gangland stereotypes. Through this in-depth biography of one-time criminal celebrity, George Appo, Timothy Gilfoyle transforms this well-worn genre into something quite startling: a richly insightful and complex examination of an actual human being.
