The Importance of the Gray Hair in "A Rose for Emily"

"A Rose for Emily" is not a linear story, where the first event treated brings about the next, and so on--rather, it is nonlinear, jumping back and forth in time. However, there is a method to this temporal madness: the story opens with Miss Emily's funeral, then goes back in time, slowly revealing the central events of Miss Emily's life, before going back forward in time to the funeral.
