Books by Marie Sexton (Author of Promises)

The Letter Z is the third book by Marie Sexton that takes place in Colorado and involves Matt and Jared (Promises) and Zach and Angelo (A to Z). "Sequel to..." "Spin-off of..." In my head I've labeled them "the three books from the Coda, Colorado series" One of the dangers of reading a series or "falling in love"...

Coda Books Series by Marie Sexton - Goodreads

A to Z is called a Promises spin-off which is one of the selling factors for me. Having adored Promises, I was really excited to read the laid back romantic style of the author once again. This offering does evoke some of the highlights of the previous book but ultimately fails to live up to the same excellence due to the writing style.

A to Z (Coda Books, #2) by Marie Sexton - Goodreads

A to Z had a really different feel to the first book in the series, probably due to a combination of a factors including the story being told from alternating points of view, the different setting and the new characters. It is not until half way through the book that Jared, Matt and the town of Coda make an appearance.

Once again, Marie Sexton has created an interesting and satisfying read with A to Z, the second book of the Coda series. Although I didn't think this book was as good as her first one, Promises, it is still worthy of recommendation to anyone looking for something with endearing characters and thought-out plot. Her two stars, Zach and Angelo, are 3-Dimensional: they each have their own distinct personalities and voices, magnified by the story's alternating points of view (which Sexton handles ...
