Wolf at the Door - Wikipedia

With The Wolf at the Door, Adhara delivers a damn impressive debut novel, one that will surely remain among my top reads of 2019. What we have here is an engaging whodunit-type crime/mystery plot, full of lots of intriguing twists and turns that left me riveted to the page as I tried my best to predict what was coming next – (mostly) to no avail.

The Wolf at the Door (Big Bad Wolf, #1) by Charlie Adhara

I keep the wolf from the door He calls me up Calls me on the phone Tells me all the ways that he's gonna mess me up Steal all my children If I don't pay the ransom And I'll never see them again If I squeal to the cops No no no no no no no Walking like giant cranes ah With my X-ray eyes I strip you naked In a tight little world and why are you
