So everything put together makes for this oppressive "imperial affliction," which is a sort of metaphor for an all-encompassing despair. And where does it come from? The "Air," of course, since that's also where the slant of light comes from. The word "imperial" has a connotation of being everywhere. So not only has the speaker blended all the dots together, but she's also combined the inside and outside worlds in a way that makes them look like one and the same.
