Some of this Very Short Introduction's best moments come when he narrates the Green applications and environmental dimensions of a left (necessary to preface this as some capitalists have taken this term)-libertarian, small c-communist (as in controlling a common means of ownership for resources shared by all) version. This is, however, one ...

Anarchism: A Very Short Introduction
Oxford's Very Short Introduction books have been hit-or-miss, in my experience; and this one, though not without its merits, goes into the "miss" column. It reads like a brochure for anarchism - and not a very good one at that - rather than an introduction to its concepts.
