As Fun As Eating Sawdust: Battle for the Abyss by Ben ...

This book is by far the most boring of all the Horus Heresy books so far. I only liked two scenes in it. First the " Psyker depth charge " and later when the lone World Eaters champion finds the trophy room aboard the Furious Abyss and sees Gorefather, his primarchs chainaxe, a gift to Lorgar, and realises his legion has turned traitor along with the Word Bearers.

ResinJunkie Reviews: Battle for the Abyss by Ben Counter ...

The Black Library's eighth installment in the Horus Heresy series "Battle for the Abyss" by Ben Counter was better than the previous three and was more reminiscent of the first four in the series. Mr. Counter displays his acumen with the written word and definitely comes across as one of the Black Library's better writers.

Battle For The Abyss By Ben Counter | Books | The book bug

The battle at the start with the Furious Abyss destroying all the ships by making their crew reveal their true allegiance to the Word Bearers was inspired! It was a surprising tactic that I can imagine the Word Bearers using and as a tactic it worked really well. The problem was the description of Zadkiel during the fight,...
