Bear, Otter, and the Kid is all about family, friendships and above all love in all shapes and sizes. It's about growing, daring to dream and being brave enough to jump off that cliff, to the unknown and hope there is someone to catch you. I don't care if you love differently than everyone else.

Who We Are (Bear, Otter, and the Kid, #2) by T.J. Klune

Bear and Otter have moved in together and are in the process of adopting the Kid. It's an adjustment period in their lives and while nothing is perfect, they are very happy together. First thing I have to get off my chest. The cover of this book is HORRIBLE.
