Using the RCL texts creates an opportunity to connect Bible study with worship by relating the lesson text to the sermon text, and that's one of the connections we want Connections to make. Many pastors use the lectionary to help guide their sermon ministry, so classes that follow a lectionary-based program of study should bring some helpful context to the sermon and to worship.

Great Women of the Bible

For both young men and young women, becoming a parent before one's time is an unfortunate occurrence. It changes the course of one's life for the rest of one's life. The Bible tells us that the body is the temple of God. Therefore, we should treat our bodies as though they are sacred. We should honor and respect our bodies.
