Bite Me is a wonderful debut from an author I'll be keeping my eye on, Melissa Francis. The witty dialogue and compelling plot she has produced prove that she knows what she's doing. The witty dialogue and compelling plot she has produced prove that she knows what she's doing.

Review: Bite Me! (Bite Me #1) by Melissa Francis - Your Future

The gorgeousness of that cake (despite the fondant) has totally distracted me from the review. It makes me think of Alice in Wonderland or The Cat in the Hat. Bite Me could be awful, but if I see it at the bookstore, I'll probably think, mmm, cake, might be good.. Okay, will go back and re-read the review, ignoring the cake.

Bite Me 1 Melissa Francis

There are a lot of things to like about Bite Me!, the debut novel by Melissa Francis. First of all, the protagonist, AJ Ashe, is a high school girl who actually is a vampire, rather than being a doe-eyed girlfriend of a vampire. AJ doesn't even like being a vampire, and has spent most of her life being as perfect as she can to compensate.
