Blood Work by Michael Connelly - Goodreads

Blood Work is an elegant mix of art and science, an amalgam of jaw-dropping horror and inspiration, even including a Dramatis Personae, much like William Shakespeare did in his plays. Interestingly, this character list pits the French players against the English ones.

Blood Work: A Tale of Medicine and Murder by Robert ...

Part detective tale, part police procedural, "Blood Work" is the story of a retired FBI agent who takes on one last case for a very personal reason. I finished it and enjoyed it well enough, but this book is not as good as the other Michael Connelly novels I've read. The main character is okay, and his rationale for taking on the case is ...
