Joanne Harris, the acclaimed author of Chocolat, departs from sunny characters and a feel-good story in her latest work, blueeyedboy. 'blueeyedboy' is the online name of Benjamin Winter, a troubled man who joins a creative writing forum. Group members post chapters of their works-in-progress, comment on those of others, and occasionally get together.

Blueeyedboy | Joanne Harris

Blueeyedboy was not so much a Rubik's cube as that fiendish Chinese puzzle-box in Clive Barker's Hellraiser movies, the box that summons demons. At least, that's what it felt like to me – and if a few of those demons managed to crawl inside the pages of this book, then I can't say I'm entirely surprised.
