From the United Press review of A Certain Smile by Françoise Sagan (1956): A Certain Smile by Françoise Sagan (translated from the French, Un Certain Sourire) is that rare delight, a second novel that fulfills the promise of the author's first. Young as Miss Sagan is, her writing is imbued with a maturity so naturally presented as to seem not in the least surprising.

Bonjour Tristesse & A Certain Smile: Françoise Sagan ...
Community Reviews. Bonjour Tristesse is both a coming of age story and potboiler of tangled relationships, set in the South of France. A Certain Smile, is also a coming of age story of sorts, tell the story of a student's first affair. Both were very enjoyable and I'll probably re-read at some point.
