Captain America is one of the oldest comic book superheroes around, and for good reason: he is a timeless metaphor for justice, honor and duty. Very few characters in any medium convey such a strong message of doing what's right. However, in the Winter Soldier, Book One, the question becomes: is he still relevant?

Captain America by Ed Brubaker (Reading Order)

Brubaker has envisioned a Cap that is both vulnerable and strong, presenting what is ultimately a more human hero without losing all those heroic elements that make him Captain America.
