Cezanne: Art and Life

I list these difficulties to make clearer what Alex Danchev has taken on in his brave new life of Cézanne. Danchev is not your usual artistic biographer. Currently the professor of international relations at Nottingham University, he has previously written about the Falklands war, about Britain's special relationship with America, and about international perspectives on the Gulf conflict. All of which provides excellent preparation for a life of Cézanne.

Read Cezanne: A Life by Alex Danchev É This is a first rate study of C zanne and his art Danchev explores the very subtle yet ground breaking work of one of the great painters of the nineteenth century. The title would have entitled the book differently for it concentrates on what C zanne accomplished, not his life I would recommend it to anyone interested in art.
