China's Second Continent: How a Million Migrants Are Building a New Empire in Africa is a 2014 book on China's neocolonialist endeavors in Africa by American journalist and photographer Howard W. French. A rigorous critique, and in part a rebuke of China's obvious acceleration of neocolonialism, it analyzes the efforts of millions of Chinese diplomats and businesspeople who have relocated to Africa to work for Chinese companies.

China's Second Continent (2014) is about the mass wave of Chinese migrants who have relocated to Africa in the last few decades. These blinks trace the origins of this migration and outline the profound impact it has on both regions, Chinese-African relations and the world at large.
