Review: Clay by David Almond | Books | The Guardian

The story David Almond tells in Clay is an unusual one. It is not a typical young adult book at all; I can think of nothing else like it. It is a beautifully written novel by a talented author. His book Heaven Eyes is equally dream-like, haunting, and brilliant. In Clay, Almond creates a world that, while very real, is equally surreal. It is an odd and sometimes beautiful mixture of reality and the supernatural, created in a unique way.
