Company of Liars, Karen Maitland This was ... not what I expected. A band of travellers in the England of 1348, travelling and telling tales to each other over the course of their journeys. The reviews and comments on it make an obvious but – to my mind – highly suspect assertion that this somehow a re-imagining of The Canterbury Tales.

Karen Maitland - Book Series In Order

Karen Maitland paints a vivid picture of a group of people, nine in all, who band together to avoid the Plague and pestilence of England in 1348. The group don't know each other but come together over their shared search for safety from the pestilence which they seek to outrun as they head north and east.
