I agree 100%, except my memory of the early crypto conversations is a bit different. I remember very little curiosity on display, and a whole lot of confidently wrong predictions of imminent collapse. My view is that if cash is crude oil, Bitcoin and mined currencies are whale oil; competing against fusion.

We are not superstars, super spiritual, or super human. We arrive at this curious intersection with global missions simply because we feel God leading and we share His deep love for a lost and thirsty world. If there's an uncommon faith, courage, or strength involved, these things come later. They are more of a result than a prerequisite.
