Dear Thief by Samantha Harvey - Penguin Books Australia

Dear Thief is a contemplation, condemnation and reverence all at once to the consequences of time. Time in the story is captured in fractals, and the temporal shifts are so frequent that it gave the narrative a dreamy, almost surreal effect (and sometimes, sharp and biting).

Dear Thief by Samantha Harvey, Paperback | Barnes & Noble®

-- Good Housekeeping (London), Praise for Dear Thief : " Dear Thief is a hypnotic, beautiful and sometimes dark incantation--a letter to an old friend that lures the reader in and doesn't let go. Samantha Harvey's novel is a deftly drawn reminder of our deeply human desire for connection and the risk involved in the revelation of that desire."

Dear Thief Quotes. The Self—Atman—is in food, and rises from food to vegetation to earth to water to air to Spirit to Brahman. Atman and Brahman are in the eel pressed indecorously between two pieces of stale bread! In the lowest things the glow of universal Spirit—but wait, the elemental Self, the living Self, the thinking Self.
