Dirty Angels 1 Karina Halle

Karina Halle has done an exceptional job in portraying a gritty and quite disturbing plot that focuses around the Mexican drug cartel. Dirty Angels isn't my darkest read by a long shot, but one that is still thought provoking and a little gruesome in places, that just gets my heart pounding, my blood pumping and my book lovin' soul buzzin!'

review 1: This book is such a disappointment. It would have helped if Karina Halle read the Artists trilogy prior to writing Dirty Angels. Javier is so all over the place in this book, and so surprisingly and unexplainably human. This is such bull for a person like Javier. I don't know if the author really knows what she wanted for this character.
