Joseph Bruchac, Dragon Castle (New York: Dial, 2011). Like The Ugly and Out of This Furnace, Dragon Castle counts as a Slovak novel in English only by a certain sleight of hand on my part.

Dragon Castle - Kindle edition by Joseph Bruchac. Children ... review 2: The dragon castle novel by Joseph Bruchac is a story that I would rate a 4/5 stars. The reason is because I wanted to see more of the dragon than in just the end. But don't let that concern you. This is still a great novel that I would recommend to people that are very into monarchy stories and kind of into monarchy stories.

Joseph Bruchac Dragon Castle I just finished DRAGON CASTLE, seeing in it a metaphor for our times, perhaps all times, in the struggle against those who would take over and drain all the good from a kingdom, nation, person. Standing strong and together, showing kindness, and using one's wits can bring us through.

Dragon Castle by Joseph Bruchac
Joseph Bruchac brought us a very endearing story of family love, commitment and durability. I loved reading "The Dragon Castle" It's a quick read that is great for any age especially those readers that can't get enough of once upon a times in castles with dragons, kings, queens, princes, princesses and,of course, the vengeful bad wizard.
