Mamoona Gallani ABSTRACT: KEYWORDS: INTRODUCTION

(1934–) British dramatist whose experimental plays, often depicting scenes of violence, aroused much controversy. Born in London, Bond first attracted attention with his plays in the sixties.

Lear - Drama Online

Edward Bond was born on 18 July 1934 into a lower-working-class family in Holloway, North London. As a child during World War II he was evacuated to the countryside but was present during the bombings on London in 1940 and 1944. This early exposure to the violence and terror of war probably shaped themes in his work, while his experience of the evacuation gave him an awareness of social alienation which would characterise his writing.
