Essay on elegy written in a country churchyard

Elegy Written in a Country Churchyard is a Restoration Period poem by Thomas Gray.An elegy, by strict definition, is usually a lament for the dead. Gray's version of an elegy is slightly different—he writes about the inevitability and hollowness of death in general, instead of mourning one person.

Elegy Written in a Country Churchyard Summary - eNotes.com

Gray's 'Elegy Written in a Country Churchyard' is the culmination of the literature of melancholy as well as of the Churchyard school. With its pensive mood and love of twilight it is in the Penseroso vein; in its meditation on death and the grave, it belongs more properly to the school of Blair and Young. The Elegy is the best-known poem of Gray.
