The compression will be different on each side of the engine if I mount them, so I'm going to sell them instead. I have two 410 (E-475 Edsel) heads laying in my basement, together with a lot of other 410 parts. Will these heads fit my 390, or is the 410 (E-475 Edsel engine) not a FE? I don't have the block now, so I can't check it out by myself.
