The Fifth Child by Doris Lessing:

Characters:

The birth of their fifth child, Ben, brings their blissful dream to an abrupt end. Ben is a rather unusual child, and Lessing makes every effort to render him in nearly supernatural terms. In the space of only five pages, Harriet calls him a troll, a goblin, a leech, an alien, a little beast, and a nasty little brute.

Before the birth of Ben we see how Harriet doesn't seem to like her child. She kept calling the baby a "monster" through her pain. After Ben was born Harriet didn't seem to show love to her child. Even though he was different from the other children she didn't show the same love to Ben as the other children.
