In most cases of trauma the soul fragments and separates from the core forming an alter (which is simply an altered state of mind) and then forms a wall of protection around itself. The trauma and memory stays locked away enabling the person to continue to function but the soul is no longer whole and will eventually need healing and integration back into wholeness again.

Shamanic Soul Retrieval: What Is It & How Does It Work

"All there is, is fragments, because a man, even the loneliest of the species, is divided among several persons, animals, worlds. To know a man more than slightly it would be necessary to gather him together from all those quarters, each last scrap of him, and this done after he is safely dead." ? Coleman Dowell, Island People
