Genki Textbook Review by Tofugu

I think Genki is the best textbook-workbook for self learners of Japanese. I started both Genki and Minna no Nihongo to see which one I would stick with and it ended up being Genki. It has a lot of both writing and listening exercises, also reading and listening comprehension practice that is really helpful. Especially the listening.

Genki is probably one of the best beginner Japanese textbooks out there. That said, there aren't any amazing textbook options out there, so just being pretty decent puts you on the top. Genki is pretty decent, in my opinion. Get the workbook, because it was designed for teachers (who create additional materials for their students to fill in the practice voids).
