The story is a fascinating concept from the mind of author Jory Strong. The world building is intense, and, yes, there is a lot of sex. I like that about the book. The world is dark and people have to be strong to survive. It's the start of a really good series that I hope continues past book three.

It's a place of opposites and extremes, of horror alongside beauty, extravagant wealth juxtaposed to hard-scrabble poverty — and where a war brews between ancient, unseen enemies. I hope you'll join me there, along with Aisling and Zurael in Ghostland, and later, in August, with Tir and Araña in Spider-Touched. Regards, Jory Strong
