Financial crisis of 2007-08 -

Wikipedia

A decade on from the global financial crisis, signs that the banking industry has entered the late phase of the economic cycle are clear: growth in volumes and top-line revenues is slowing with loan growth of just four percent in 2018—the lowest in the past five years and a good 150 basis points below nominal GDP growth.

This is a revision of the business of global banking. With the increased globalization of the world economy few sectors are the equal of banking and financial services in dynamism or structural change. Roy C. Smith and Ingo Walter assess this transformation-its causes, its course and its consequences.
