God absolutely cares about the little things that happen in our lives. To gain some perspective, we must first understand that everything is little compared to God; He created the entire universe. But the question of whether God cares is more fundamentally about the depth of His love than it is about the breadth of His power or the importance of a particular detail.

Does God care about the little things that happen in our ...

God is God alone (Isaiah 37:16). We have never been God, we are not God now, and we never will be God. Jesus was fully God and fully man (a combination called the hypostatic union). If the “ little gods ” hypothesis is accepted, it imputes to Jesus a lesser divinity of some kind; He became a “ little god ” like us.

Does God care about everything in my life, even the little ...

God does indeed care about the “ little things ” in our lives, because He cares about us. Compared to Him and His glory, our whole lives are made up of those “ little things. ” Psalm 139:17–18 says, “ How precious to me are your thoughts, O God!
