Why is life not fair? | GotQuestions.org

A God who did not care about the difference between right and wrong and did not judge humans for acting one way or the other would not be an admirable being worthy of our love or trust. The fact that God is just and will judge between right and wrong gives ultimate moral significance to our lives and makes us accountable for our actions. 1

God Is Just Not Fair – Footprints of a Legacy Left Behind

Psalm 58:11 says, " Surely there is a reward for the righteous; surely He is God who judges in the earth. " Yet many question this verse, saying, " If God is fair, then why is there so much wickedness on earth? " The truth is this: God is not fair, but He is just. For if God were fair, we would all be dead, since we have all sinned against the holiness of God.

God is Just

Yet God has provided salvation as a free gift (Ephesians 2:8-9) to anyone who believes in His Son, Jesus Christ (John 3:16; Acts 4:12). Far more than being fair, God is gracious (giving us not what we deserve, but what we need) and merciful (not giving us the punishment we do deserve). He is also just (morally consistent or fair) and righteous.

Life Is Not Fair (and Neither Is God) | Ministry-To-Children

The Kingdom of God isn't fair. It is just, but just not fair. This is actually a bit of wonderful news for most of us, which is exactly what the word " Gospel " means: good news, news that encourages our souls and gives us hope for not only this life but for whatever comes next.

Is God Fair? Maybe Not, but He's Right - Crosswalk.com

God has commanded that His people also act fairly (Leviticus 19:36; Deuteronomy 25:15; Proverbs 21:3; Isaiah 56:1), but people do not always obey God's commands. He gives them the freedom to disobey, if that is their choice. Those who rebel against God do not seek justice, and that is one reason why life is not fair.

God Is Just Not Fair - LifeWay

The world we live in today is not fair and kids should not have any expectation that it will be fair. When kids come to expect " fair, " it inevitably leads to a sense of entitlement. As a parent, do special things for just one kid at a time.
