Norman Davies' 'God's Playground' is a rather concise history of Poland. It should be compulsory reading for everyone, who wants to find out about this part of the world. I don't think there is any better. Davies quite rightly anticipates in his preface that the book's title might raise an eyebrow. And it did.

Norman Davies is a great author who researches thoroughly and writes effectively. This book, God's Playground, gives the reader a great overview of Poland from 1795. I was particularly interested in Poland's 20 years of independence following the Polish-Soviet War and Poland during the World War II era.
