Grace T Greenwood
I read T. Greenwood's first novel over a decade ago, and since then I have always been anxiously awaiting her next. Her characters are always captivating and her story lines complex and heartwrenching.
When I learned the

Grace, Trevor's five-year-old sister, remains the family's only bright spot. As the abuse becomes more extreme, Trevor's life starts to careen out of control.

VERDICT Greenwood's harrowing study of a troubled family on the brink of disaster is exceptionally well observed; her skillful use of imagery and foreshadowing sharpens the focus on the Kennedys' dysfunction and avoidance of communication.
