Ride-on Mowers. Using a ride-on mower can cut more than just your grass, as ride-on mowers can also exponentially cut the time it takes you to cut the grass when compared to using a traditional push mower. Saving time is one of the biggest advantages of owning a ride-on mower, because if you have a large or sloping lot, using a push mower is just not ideal.

Every American automaker turned its workforce and facilities to military production during World War II. But no project captured the public's imagination like Willow Run, where Ford Motor Company built one B-24 Liberator airplane every 63 minutes. The plant was the embodiment of America's "Arsenal of Democracy" -- the enormous manufacturing capacity so vital to the Allies' victory.
