Most guitar guide would just skip to the ' how to play the guitar ' part. This book however gives more than that. Aside from the fundamentals, the basic guitar parts, tuning, fretting and reading the guitar tablature are also explained. The bonus on pictures of chords on famous songs at the end of the book is a plus for me.

Both instruments are truly wonderful and most guitar players eventually end up owning one of each, if not more. I have twelve guitars at this time and love them all – they are all unique and have their own voices. The biggest thing to keep in mind when making this decision is the electric guitar is a little easier to learn on than an acoustic.
