The Philosophy of Hannibal : HannibalTV - reddit

One thing to consider is that Hannibal is very well-read, and it is not surprising he has read Nietzsche or has impressions of Socrates. That being the case, I wouldn't go too far in saying Nietzsche or Socrates hint at Hannibal's philosophy simpl...

Hannibal Lecter - Wikipedia

Lecter is intrigued by the concept of death in many forms, both in reality and in philosophy. While this quote could seem benign coming from someone else, from Lecter's lips it takes on a sinister note. Death obviously drives Hannibal in some type of way, and his view of what makes him great is a twisted one.
