Any fan of Brendel or of Haydn's piano sonatas will treasure this release. The performances of these wonderful sonatas--all adventurous, experimental and searching pieces that often leave behind the certainties of the classical sonata form and cross into or at least anticipate romantic fantasy--feature Brendel's superb, searching clarity and his ready apprehension of Haydn's wit and humor.

major, Hob. XVI/52, L. 62, was written in 1794 by Joseph Haydn. It is the last of Haydn's piano sonatas, and is widely considered his greatest. It has been the subject of extensive analysis by distinguished musicological personages such as Heinrich Schenker
and Sir Donald Tovey, largely because of its expansive length, unusual harmonies and interesting development.
