One point against the ‘it was all just a dream’ theory. But that wasn't reassuring in the slightest. After all, it was far better for her to be hallucinating than for her to actually have broken the barrier between worlds. She was not ready to deal with the consequences of ripping holes in space like that. Crowley was still muttering.

The sentence was "The Magic of the mind eye is the key". which probably referenced to the big eye on the front of the tower. However, this was supposedly entirely unintentional and was not intended to be a hint. The VM and Boost Items Barrier of this tower are triangular, making this the first tower to have a non-rectangular barrier.
