Hive 1 Tim Curran

Tim Curran's The Hive follows a group of scientists and technicians wintered-in at an Antarctic research station and the horrors they experience following the discovery of a dead pre-human culture that may not be as dead as it first appeared. I enjoyed this book overall. The book is a nice change of pace from the onslaught of zombie fiction ...

What really struck me about Tim Curran's Hive is the intensity of the atmosphere. I had a vivid sense of the character's vulnerability as they were marooned at the south pole without the possibility of intervention from the outside world during the long Antarctic winter months.
