I won Stephen Wetta's If Jack's In Love in a Goodreads giveaway. This is the coming of age story of Jack Witcher set in the South in the late 1960's. He's twelve-turning-thirteen, and he's in love with Myra Joyner -- a situation complicated by his family's social standing and, later on, the possibility that his older brother Stan may have killed Myra's older brother.

If Jack's in Love by Stephen Wetta - Goodreads

In If Jack's In Love, Jack narrates this coming of age tale where we learn about his evolution from a Witcher boy to a young man with a mind of his own. Jack is in love with Myra Joiner - a girl from the other side of the track (the right side, per se), whose brother, Gaylord, disappears one August night.

And just like that, Jack's relationships with Myra, his family and their entire community are forever altered. If Jack's in Love is a moving portrait of a specific time, family and town, but also a universal story of growing up and coming to terms with the people—and places—that raise us, told with all the humor, truth and urgency of its teenage hero.
