Media vita in morte sumus — in the midst of life we are in death. This antiphon is attributed to the Benedictine monk Notker I of Saint Gall, who died in 912. Legend has it that the musician and poet wrote it when he saw construction workers building a bridge hover over an abyss.

In the midst of life - Vertaling naar Nederlands ...
In The Midst Of Life is every bit as thought-provoking as Worths three Call The Midwife books. On the whole I thought it darker and more chilling because though we almost invariably welcome birth, our present day society still largely manages to maintain a taboo on discussing death and exploring the issues that we may anticipate surrounding our own death.
