Horrible as the situation may be, COVID-19 still wasn't the biggest killer in the world in the annus horribilis of 2020. That would be abortion, which claimed 42.7 million unborn lives worldwide last year, according to data from the global statistical site Worldometers reported by Breitbart. That made abortion the leading cause of death worldwide by a wide margin, with cancer the second ...

The rival far right candidates, despite the issue of immigration coming at 31% third in the list of people's concerns (after living standards, 40% and Covid 33%), seem to have been pushed aside by Vallière Péresse of Les Républicaines. She is of the traditional (formerly 'Gaullist') centre to hard right and now looks to be the main challenger to outgoing President Emmanuel Macron.
