Addiction

Into the Forest. by Jean Hegland. 1996, Dial Press. ... Into the Forest is a post-apocalyptic story unlike any other I've read. My usual preference is for huge sweeping sagas of reformed societies and shantytowns, or the epic adventures of a roaming band of misfits who just want to survive. You know, classic post-apocalyptic stuff.

Jean Hegland, Into the Forest It's not that I didn't enjoy Jean Hegland's Into the Forest . After all, it's a post-apocalypse novel where the teenage protagonists work hard at learning to live off the land to support themselves, with buckets of ecology lessons and not-entirely-inaccurate information about local First Nations, so what's not to like?
