My Grandad had an old 805B with the hydraslide rig as well, he also ran JCB 5C and a Massey 450S also. All good tools but heavily worn. I'm a bit of the opinion that JCB 360's started to go down hill a bit after the 814 super with the JS series, 814's had a great reputation JS's don't have quite such a good reputation.

Heres one that might stump a few, I have an old JCB 805bt power slide, the main boom slides out and in and I think it is locked in place by a small ram. I am not totally sure as the ram has two wires dangling down from it and hence it does not work, the guy I bought it off knew nothing but said that he was tempted to weld it in place.

JCB 812 broke again - The Classic Machinery Network

Willi C, copped the 2 service manuals off me that covered 812 through 820, but I dont think they are realy needed as the JCB early kit is fairly simple to work on, the power slide often falls through wear on the wedge plates not as most people think its hydraulic drama, they are very basic little swingers. ttractors
