"Jesus Hopped the 'A' Train" takes place at the Rikers Island Prison in New York City, and revolves around the interactions of two inmates, two guards and a public defender lawyer. Lucius Jenkins, played by Dumi is an extremely articulate African American convicted serial killer who is trying to stall his extradition to Florida, where he will be executed.

Toronto Review: 'Jesus Hopped the A Train' at Soulpepper ...

In Stephen Adly Guirgis' Jesus Hopped the 'A' Train, Angel Cruz, a bike messenger on trial for murder, spends twenty-three hours a day in lockdown. A brutal prison guard and sociopathic serial killer serve as his only sources of human contact, while a nearly disillusioned public defender compromises her ethics to champion Angel's cause.
