Journey To The Stone Country - Reading Australia

Journey to the Stone Country, like Landscape of Farewell, is a novel that comes out of a specific Queensland landscape, one peopled by characters who are marked by their country and culture - details again, the examples that matter. But there is nothing regional or confined about Miller's imaginative or intellectual reach.

Journey to the Stone Country

Journey to the Stone Country is based on the true story of two of my friends. It also draws on my love of the landscape of the Central Highlands of Queensland and the Bowen Basin, where I worked on cattle stations as a young man.
