Manning | JQuery in Action, Third Edition

This book was exactly what I was looking for. JQuery has its own way to approach many problems and, in my case, I almost had to "unlearn" certain habits and embrace the idiomatic alternatives offered by the library. JQuery in Action helped me a lot in the process, saved me some time and made the whole learning process much more enjoyable.

JQuery In Action By Bear Bibeault And Yehuda Katz. JQuery In Action does a solid job of fully explaining the feature set of the jQuery library. In fact, I often found the documentation of the jQuery methods to be more completely fleshed out in the book than they are on the official site. This is especially true for methods that can take callbacks.
