LAKE MORNING IN AUTUMN - WordPress.com

Compiled by Smnzne nun Rooyen Before sunrise on a cold autumn morning the poet observed a lonely stork standing in the shallow water of the lake. A quick shower of rain swept over the lake and the stork was too tired to arrange its feathers that had been blown about by the strong gusty wind.

Lake Morning In Autumn | English School on Wheels

The poet is painting a picture with words of a stork standing on its long thin legs in the shallow waters of an African lake at dawn. The stork appears to look both tired and sad: tired possibly because of its long flight to this spot; sad because it is all alone, its companion storks not yet having arrived.

Lake Morning In Autumn Poem

swept over the chill autumn morning: and he, too tired to arrange His wind-buffeted plumage, perched swaying a little neck flattened, ruminative, beak on chest, contemplative eye filmy with star vistas and hollow black migratory leagues, strangely, ponderously alone and some weeks early. The dawn struck and everything sky, water, bird, reeds
